Job Circular No.: 20260524-006

Position: Laboratory Assistant

Location: FDMN Camps in Cox's Bazar

Number of Vacancies: 03

Reports To: Clinic In-Charge cum Medical Officer (MO)

About RTMI:

Research, Training and Management International (RTMI) is a non-profit, women-led resource organization established in 1994 transforming development landscapes across Bangladesh including Cox's Bazar, Bhasanchar and Sylhet.

Job Responsibilities:

RTMI is seeking a skilled and detail-oriented Laboratory Assistant to support the diagnostic services at the PHC in FDMN camps. The Laboratory Assistant will ensure safe, timely, and accurate collection, processing, and reporting of laboratory samples in accordance with standard protocols, while maintaining strict infection prevention and control (IPC) practices.

Key Responsibilities:

- Collect, label, and process clinical specimens (e.g., blood, urine, sputum, stool) following aseptic techniques.
- Prepare and perform basic laboratory tests, including rapid diagnostic tests (RDTs), microscopy, and other point-of-care diagnostics under supervision.
- Ensure proper operation and routine maintenance of basic lab equipment such as microscopes, centrifuges, and analyzers.
- Maintain accurate documentation of test results, registers, and lab reports, and ensure timely submission to clinicians.
- Follow laboratory safety and infection prevention protocols, including proper disposal of biohazardous materials.
- Assist in stock management of lab reagents and supplies, and notify supervisors of shortages or equipment malfunctions.
- Collaborate with medical officers, nurses, and other health personnel to support timely diagnosis and treatment.
- Participate in sample transportation coordination for advanced diagnostics (e.g., TB samples) when needed.
- Ensure cleanliness and organization of the laboratory area at all times.
- Perform any other relevant duties assigned by the Clinic In-Charge or RTMI authority to support service delivery.
